Dear Marshall:

Thank you so much for your letter of August 2 and the editorial from the Buenos Aires Herald of July 27 reporting on efforts by the Government to investigate recent cases of disappearances.

With regard to the killing of Admiral Lambruschinis' daughter, it was a deplorable act, about which we share your distress. As you are no doubt aware, the U.S. Government issued a strong statement deploring it as a "callous and brutal act of terrorism."

Your efforts in the Lokman case are greatly appreciated. We also are trying to do what we can at this end on his behalf.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,
